Time for a rocket launch

Box with LEGO® bricks, stickers and paper elements

Attention all LEGO® fans: Riddle, sticker, building and playing fun all in one!

The high-quality LEGO® box takes fans straight into space. With over 40 LEGO bricks and 250 stickers, there's plenty to do on the subject of rockets. No less than three different models can be built from the bricks provided, and thanks to the instructions in the book, anyone can build a rocket. Fans have design options not only through the countless stickers, but also through included paper elements that make building fun galactic. Exciting riddles are a must for budding rocket builders, making the Build and Play box a real highlight.

This LEGO® box is wonderfully suitable for children aged 6 and up and also serves to give free rein to their own creativity. Whether following instructions or not, endless building and playing fun is pre-programmed.
